

From "Stop" , 2017

Stop
I can't hear you talk
Don't know you so jump
To conclusions I made

Block
Love me or not
Made friends with the clock
So I could try to forget

Knock
But my pride is shut
Wrapping around my heart
So you can't break in

Stop
I can't hear you talk
Your knife was too sharp
But it helps me start again

From "Your Lies", 2017

Hit me with your lies
Draw the scars on my soul
There's a song in your eyes
And it's growing old

Hold me with your lies
I've been so lost since long ago
Been singing the sad song in ur eyes
I know it well I memorized

How are you I'm doing fine
Been planning a trip to Mykonos
Where we dance in the moonlight in July
A picture in my head we never took

Every time I take a walk in my mind
I hide my tears with a smile
I'm a closed book but you can't deny
You open and read once in a while
